

MILWAUKEEWISCONSIN

JSONLINE.COM

BREAKING NEWS
www.jsonline.com

Volunteering their time on MLK Day

MICHAEL SEARS / MILWAUKEE JOURNAL SENTINEL

Volunteers from Reinhart Boerner Van Deuren s.c. law firm apply new paint at Lincoln Ave. School in Milwaukee as part of a larger volunteer service project by the law firm, United Way and City Year Milwaukee, which participated in school beautification projects for Martin Luther King Jr. Day.

Above: Guy Temple (foreground) and Dave Hanson (rear right) work on painting the hallway.

Right: Michala Eberlein paints a wall outside a classroom.

To see a photo gallery, go to jsonline.com/news.

Trial girl kill face

Another
did crime
defense s

BRUCE VIELMET
MILWAUKEE JOURNAL S

After waiti
years for someo
charged with ki
year-old Carrie
pek in 1982, her
hoped resolution
come quickly.

In 2015, pros
said 51-year-old
ward Ferreira Jr.
suspect in Jopek
pearance and
had confessed to
and a TV station
But more than
year has passed
since he was charged, and
even now, on the eve of a fourth
trial date, the
case could face
further delay.

For the pas
few months, his attorneys have been trying to construct a de fense built on a
suggestion an other man is re sponsible, a so called Denny de fense, named