

2016 OSHA Trends Present Peril for Unprepared Employers

On Friday, April 29, Reinhart and GZA GeoEnvironmental, Inc. presented 2016 OSHA Trends Present Peril for Unprepared Employers. As the current administration wraps up its final year, OSHA is taking the opportunity to finalize rules, make changes and solidify procedures. This seminar outlined OSHA's 2016 agenda and trends, and how employers can prepare themselves to ensure compliance with OSHA requirements, avoid or minimize penalties, and guard their employees' health and safety in the workplace.

Topics included:

- Introduction to OSHA's new penalty authority and 2016 initiatives
- Strategies for dealing with OSHA from inspection through litigation
- Health and safety areas of special concern to OSHA
- Issues that arise with temporary workers and in the construction context
