

Attorney Christopher P. Banaszak Named Chair of Reinhart's Labor and Employment Practice

MILWAUKEE – Christopher P. Banaszak has been named Chair of the Reinhart Boerner Van Deuren s.c. Labor and Employment Practice.

With more than 15 years experience as a labor attorney and litigator, Banaszak serves a wide range of manufacturing and service industry clients, including financial institutions. He is also a frequent speaker at labor and employment seminars, offering proactive solutions to corporate and human resources executives and managers.

Jerome M. Janzer, Chief Executive Officer and Chairman said, "Chris is well-suited for this position. In addition to providing excellent service to his clients, he has demonstrated his leadership abilities within our Labor and Employment Practice and the firm throughout his career. With Chris's guidance, our Labor and Employment Practice attorneys will continue to serve our clients with the latest developments in labor laws, Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and leave laws, wage and hour law, self audits and compliance policy implementation, and the Health Care Act."

Janzer also thanked Robert K. Sholl, former Labor & Employment Chair, for his fifteen years of service as chair, during which time the size of the practice group more than doubled. Sholl remains an active shareholder in the Practice.

Banaszak received his B.S. from Marquette University and his J.D., cum laude, from Marquette University Law School.
