Catherine McCormick Joins Reinhart's Litigation Practice

MILWAUKEE – Reinhart Boerner Van Deuren s.c. (Reinhart) announces that Catherine McCormick has joined the firm's Litigation Practice. As a member of the Product Liability, Safety and Recalls team, she counsels clients on a variety of commercial and civil disputes. She assists clients throughout every stage of a matter, from complaints and subpoenas to discovery disputes and deposition preparation.

"We are pleased to welcome Catherine to Reinhart," said CEO Al Orr. "Her experience with sophisticated litigation matters, combined with a thoughtful and practical approach, will serve our clients well. Catherine is a great addition to our Litigation Team as we continue to enhance our capabilities in product liability and other complex litigation matters."

Before joining Reinhart, McCormick represented an international cosmetics company in mass tort, multidistrict product litigation involving claims stemming from hair relaxer products. Her work encompassed case analysis, discovery management, motion practice and client communication. She earned her J.D. from Loyola University of Chicago School of Law.
