

Christine Rew Barden Installed as Board Chair of Madison Community Foundation

On February 23, the Madison Community Foundation (MCF) installed Shareholder Christine Rew Barden as chair of its Board of Governors. A recent interview with Christine can be found on the MCF Blog. The Foundation works with individuals and nonprofits of all sizes, helping donors explore ways to give back to the community. Christine has been a member of the MCF Board since 2018, and is part of its 2023 Chartered Advisor in Philanthropy study group. As board chair, she hopes to deepen connections between advisors like her in the community to show how much value MCF has to offer them and their clients.

Christine is a shareholder in Reinhart's Trusts and Estates Practice, and founder and chair of the firm's Family Office Services Group.
