Denise Amore is an experienced and efficient real estate paralegal, ensuring that attorneys in Reinhart's Real Estate Practice, and the clients they serve, have the documentation and information needed for smooth, efficient transactions.

She assists attorneys and clients in the acquisition and disposition of multimillion-dollar commercial real estate transactions. Denise reviews contracts, helps resolve complex title and survey issues, assists with closing documentation and keeps all parties well-informed throughout the process.

Prior to joining Reinhart, Denise worked as a residential and commercial real estate paralegal in Miami, Florida.

In her free time, Denise enjoys hiking trails, photography and reading historic non-fiction.
