Doug Huenink is a shareholder in Reinhart's Corporate Law and Tax practices, where he utilizes his strong background in finance and knack for comprehending technical matters to provide guidance to clients on a wide range of corporate and tax matters. His clients benefit from his experience in structuring and negotiating mergers and acquisitions, analyzing tax planning strategies, preparing detailed tax models and assisting with general corporate governance matters. Doug works with a wide range of clients, including private equity firms, closely held businesses, public companies and individuals.

Before joining Reinhart, Doug worked in the national mergers and acquisitions transaction services group of a Big Four accounting firm providing tax due diligence, tax structuring and tax modeling services in connection with both buy-side and sell-side transactions.

His B.B.A. in finance and skill in understanding all aspects of a business transaction help him spot and promptly address potential issues. Doug collaborates with clients to explain the upside of potential tax planning strategies as well as any associated risks to help maximize profitability. He keeps clients informed of the ever-changing tax laws and enjoys strategizing with them to achieve their business goals. Doug is extremely detail-oriented, responsive and tackles every challenge in a thoughtful, rational manner.
