

Estate, Gift and Generation-Skipping Transfer Tax Planning

Reinhart's Trusts and Estates attorneys also help clients develop plans for their businesses, investments and estates with the highest sensitivity to estate, gift and income tax planning. We explore the most tax-efficient techniques for each client's accumulation, protection and transmission of wealth, always keeping the client's overall goals and objectives top of mind.

Reinhart's tax attorneys assist our clients in the transfer of their property in a gift and estate tax-efficient manner, while also carefully considering the income tax ramifications of the transfer. Whether a sophisticated leveraged gift, or a simple annual gift to children, we help our clients achieve their goals.
