Fran Deisinger featured in article explaining differences between arbitration and mediation

Shareholder Fran Deisinger was quoted in the article "Best Lawyers: Keeping out of Court" published in the June edition of MKE Lifestyle magazine. The article discusses the differences between arbitration and mediation and which is the better alternative to avoid litigation.

Francis W. Deisinger is a shareholder in the firm's Litigation Practice and is Reinhart's General Counsel. After more than 33 years in practice, Fran is a persuasive advocate and legal strategist who draws upon his extensive knowledge and experience to obtain successful solutions in difficult disputes. In his career, Fran has represented a wide spectrum of plaintiffs, defendants, and petitioners in litigation involving trust, estate, fiduciary and donor issues, professional liability, personal injury, product liability, contracts, insurance, intellectual property infringement, business acquisitions and sales, and maritime accidents. Fran also acts as a mediator in complex civil disputes.
