As an attorney in Reinhart's Banking and Finance Practice, Grace Sinclair works with financial institutions and other clients in a variety of commercial transactions, including commercial lending and business reorganization, to deliver insightful solutions to a wide range of matters. She has a keen understanding of complex legal matters with experience assisting clients with transactions such as loans, bridge financing and structured financing arrangements. Grace also works closely with clients involved in the financial services industry to provide counsel on corporate matters, strategic initiatives, and regulatory/compliance matters.

Grace excels at analyzing the broader business implications of transactions, going beyond the surface of the deal. With her focused yet adaptable approach, she helps navigate the evolving regulatory landscape to ensure clients remain at the forefront of developments. Clients value her well-rounded, meticulous approach to the law.

Prior to joining Reinhart, Grace served as a legal intern at a large Milwaukee-area bank. Outside of work, Grace enjoys spending time with her family, playing board games and running.
