

Greg Monday Featured on “Determined to Succeed” Podcast

In a recent podcast episode of "Determined to Succeed," host Dawn Mullarney interviewed Gregory Monday, a shareholder who focuses his practice on working with family business owners to help them achieve their goals while preserving family harmony. During the interview, Greg emphasizes that success is much more the journey rather than a destination. He also discusses the challenges faced by attorneys who run their own businesses and how the journey of being an attorney is constantly evolving and requires continuous learning and adaptation.

Greg is a family business lawyer in Reinhart's Corporate Law Practice, where he assists clients with issues at the intersection of family and business. His extensive experience and knowledge of business law, contracts, tax law, estate planning and more help family business owners achieve their goals while preserving family harmony.
