

Holly Klinkosh

Paralegal

OFFICE:

414.298.8442

hklinkosh@reinhartlaw.com

LinkedIn:

<https://www.linkedin.com/in/hollyklinkosh/>

Holly Klinkosh is a paralegal in Reinhart's Intellectual Property Practice, where she assists with patent applications, information disclosure statements, office action responses and other patent-related documentation. Holly also plays a key role in trademark administration, handling tasks like preparing cease and desist letters and streamlining client intake procedures. She continuously implements innovative ways to optimize administrative processes, further enhancing the client experience.

Known for her dedication to exceeding client expectations and tackling new challenges, Holly is a detail-oriented paralegal with dedicated focus, ensuring a high standard of quality and reliable follow-through on every task. Her client forward experience, integrated science and business background and superb organizational skills allow Holly to provide exceptional service. Her ability to ask insightful questions allows her to quickly distill the intricacies of legal matters and help bring them to a successful conclusion.

Holly is driven by new challenges and is energized by her work in the field of intellectual property law. She works diligently to provide sound and cost-effective solutions while emphasizing clarity in everything she does.

Education

- B.B.A., Integrated Science and Business, University of Wisconsin-Whitewater

Practices

- Intellectual Property