J.P. Curran is a dedicated attorney in the Corporate Law Practice at Reinhart, where he focuses on mergers and acquisitions. He provides customized solutions to mitigate risk and help achieve the best possible outcomes for clients of all sizes.

A skilled collaborator, J.P. thrives upon working closely with clients to gain a thorough understanding of their business, the unique challenges they face, and identifying potential issues before they arise while delivering out-of-the-box solutions when needed. He is known for his engaging, personable demeanor and meticulous approach to work.

J.P.'s background in business and government lobbying allows him to better understand the legal nuances affecting his client's businesses and their employees. He is committed to keeping up with the latest legal developments that affect his clients.

During law school, J.P. served as a legal intern for a large Wisconsin-based manufacturer while also volunteering at the Marquette Volunteer Legal and Small Business Clinics. Prior to law school, J.P. gained valuable experience while working in the private government affairs sector as a public affairs intern for a government relations firm and as a government affairs intern for a large insurance company.

In his free time, J.P. enjoys golfing, rooting for Wisconsin sports teams and spending quality time with his family and friends.
