Jennifer D'Amato Named 'Notable Woman in Law'

Reinhart Shareholder Jennifer D'Amato has been named a "Notable Woman in Law" by Biz Times Milwaukee. This annual award recognizes exceptional female attorneys who make extraordinary contributions to their profession, who mentor young women to succeed in their law careers and who give back to their communities.

More than a decade ago, D'Amato helped transform Reinhart's executive leadership when she joined the firm's Board of Directors, and she has long served as a role model for younger attorneys, especially women aspiring to take on leadership roles and excel in their careers while leading fulfilling home lives. Esteemed by her peers, D'Amato's name is frequently featured on industry accolade lists including Best Lawyers in America, Chambers USA, Wisconsin Super Lawyer and more. She has been named a "Lawyer of the Year" by Best Lawyers for Trusts and Estates, Fiduciary Litigation and Business Organizations, and Worth Magazine has recognized her as one of the Top 100 Attorneys in the country.

Outside of the firm, D'Amato has worked with the Children's Hospital Planned Advisory Board and the Ephraim Foundation Planned Giving Committee.

"Jennifer is a gifted lawyer who blends technical expertise with an intense commitment to clients. She makes an exemplary impact within our firm and throughout the community as a leader, mentor and attorney," said Al Orr, CEO of Reinhart. "She is deserving of this recognition for her outstanding client service, and her many contributions to Reinhart and to the advancement of women in the legal profession."

D'Amato is a shareholder and chair of Reinhart's Trusts and Estates Practice, chair of the Trust Services Group and co-chair of the Fiduciary Litigation Service Group.

All "Notable Woman in Law" award recipients will be recognized in August in a special section of Biz Times Milwaukee.
