Jennifer D'Amato Shares Insight on Planned Giving in MKE Lifestyle Magazine

Shareholder Jennifer D'Amato was quoted in the article "Lasting Legacy: Experts break down the three major types of planned giving" published in the September issue of MKE Lifestyle magazine. The article discusses the three primary options of charitable donations and the advantages based on specific financial situations.

Jennifer D'Amato is chair of the firm's Trusts and Estates Practice, Trust Services and co-chair of the Fiduciary Litigation Service Group. Her clients consist of closely held business owners, wealthy families and private and public charities. Jennifer's practice includes business succession planning, leveraged gift techniques, generation-skipping transfer tax issues, will, trust and tax controversy matters, fiduciary litigation and estate and trust administration.
