Josh R. LeNoble is an attorney in Reinhart's Trusts and Estates Practice, where he focuses on estate plans for high-net-worth individuals and families, providing customized tax and estate planning solutions. By creating detailed yet flexible estate plans, he enables clients to better respond to future family changes, economic conditions and changes in tax laws.

Josh takes a risk-averse, well-calculated and technical approach to estate planning. By taking the time to understand each client's unique situation and goals, he works diligently to develop estate plans that protect their assets while ensuring their legacies are carried out according to their wishes. He is known for his friendly, easy-going and performance-oriented personality.

Finding the technical challenges of trusts and estates planning to be very rewarding, Josh also thrives on meeting with his clients and impacting their lives for the better. Josh is also keen on making a positive impact in his community, regularly volunteering his time to help others.

Prior to joining the firm, Josh was a tax associate for a boutique Milwaukee-area legal/accounting firm and a litigation associate at a Milwaukee-based Am Law 200 firm.

Outside of work, Josh enjoys running, longboarding and spending time with his friends and family.
