Laura La Rose is a Senior Research Specialist in the firm's professionally staffed Information Resource Center (IRC) and a liaison to the Data Privacy & Security, Tax Planning, Health Care, Corporate Law and Tax-Exempt Organizations practice areas. Laura provides research assistance to attorneys in the firm in order to bolster their arguments and increase research proficiency, with the goal of providing the attorneys with the information and tools needed to best service clients. She also provides cost-efficient research and training on effective research strategies and legal and business resources. As a trained and experienced research specialist, Laura provides a full spectrum of research and investigative services, from answering general reference questions and conducting detailed research projects to locating difficult-to-find or obscure information. Her in-depth knowledge of print and electronic resources allows Laura to provide Reinhart attorneys with comprehensive information relating to a wide range of relevant subject matters.

With nearly two decades of research and library experience, Laura is an active member of the law librarian community involved with local and national associations. She enjoys the intellectual challenge of research and creatively uses the tools needed for successful outcomes. Her experiential knowledge of the firm and its culture, along with her thoroughness and lightning-fast response, offer attorneys and their clients a competitive advantage.
