Lucretia Anderson is a highly skilled paralegal in Reinhart’s Employee Benefits Practice. With more than a decade of experience in the legal field, she has worked in various areas, including employee benefits, workers’ compensation, personal injury and judgments and collections. Lucretia’s extensive knowledge and attention to detail make her a valuable asset to the Trustee Funds clients she works with. Her calm, thorough and organized approach is well-regarded among her colleagues and clients alike, and she is highly respected for her professionalism and dedication to her work.

What truly sets Lucretia apart is the pride she takes in her work. She is dedicated to the clients she supports and is always willing to go the extra mile for them. Clients have often expressed their appreciation for her compassionate and empathetic approach to what can be very personal and sensitive matters.

Apart from work, Lucretia enjoys practicing yoga and meditation, working out, listening to music, reading and writing, and spending quality time with her family while embracing the joy of life.
