LinkedIn:

Pam Martinez is a paralegal in Reinhart's Employee Benefits Practice, where she assists attorneys and clients with a variety of employee benefits matters. Pam works extensively with multiemployer plan clients as a member of the firm's Taft Hartley Practice. She prepares plan documents and policies, monitors legal developments and interacts with client and other service providers.

Pam's attention to detail, ability to build relationships and communicate effectively position her as a valuable team member who assists our clients in achieving their legal and strategic objectives.

In her free time, she enjoys photography, visiting local coffee shops and spending time with family.
