Patrice M.T. Wright is a paralegal in Reinhart's Employee Benefits Practice, where she assists attorneys and Taft-Hartley multiemployer plan clients with a wide range of employee benefits matters. Her keen attention to detail helps ensure that attorneys and the clients they serve have the documentation needed for smooth and efficient transactions. She also assists with preparation for Board of Trustees meetings and on ERISA litigation matters.

Patrice is thorough and reliable in her work, and her ability to view transactions from multiple perspectives allows her to engage with clients, anticipate needs and arrive at cost-effective solutions. Before becoming a paralegal she was a legal administrative assistant at Reinhart.

In her free time, Patrice is an official for the Wisconsin Interscholastic Athletic Association, covering track and field, volleyball and soccer.
