

Phil O'Brien Interviewed by BizTimes Milwaukee About ACS CAN Board Appointment

Reinhart Shareholder Phil O'Brien was recently featured in a story from BizTimes Milwaukee about his appointment to the American Cancer Society Cancer Action Network (ACS CAN). O'Brien has a long-standing association with the American Cancer Society where he is a strong advocate for advancements in care, detection and research.

During his conversation, O'Brien mentions the strong support of the firm through the years for the annual Making Strides Against Breast Cancer event and that he is inspired by the other volunteers with whom he serves.

"It's very easy to take up the mantle and do what you can when you see examples like this on an everyday basis," he said.

O'Brien is a shareholder in Reinhart's Employee Benefits Practice primarily serving Taft-Hartley clients across the United States.
