

Reinhart Adds Four Lateral Attorneys

MILWAUKEE – Jerome M. Janzer, Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer of Reinhart Boerner Van Deuren s.c. (Reinhart), announces the addition of four experienced attorneys to the firm. Two of the attorneys—James D. Borchardt and Christopher J. Gass—join the Intellectual Property Practice. Jennifer L. Naeger joins the firm's Litigation Practice and Mindy F. Rice joins Reinhart's Banking and Finance Practice.

"Our practice groups continue to experience significant growth. We are pleased to add these talented attorneys to our firm. Each of them brings experience in their practice area and shares Reinhart's passion for client service excellence," said Janzer.

Borchardt, a registered patent attorney who comes to Reinhart from Foley & Lardner, provides counsel to clients in the technology and medical device industries from our Milwaukee office. He earned his undergraduate degree in biomedical engineering from the University of Iowa College of Engineering and his law degree, with highest distinction, from the University of Iowa College of Law.

Gass, a former electrical engineer who worked for Motorola, also provides counsel to Reinhart's Intellectual Property clients in the technology arena. As an attorney, Gass previously worked at McCracken & Frank in Chicago. He practices from the firm's Rockford, Illinois office. Gass received his undergraduate degree in electrical engineering from the University of Illinois and his law degree from the Chicago-Kent College of Law, Illinois Institute of Technology.

Naeger, who previously practiced as a litigator at Mayer Brown in New York, represents financial institutions, public and private companies, and individuals in complex litigations. She received her undergraduate degree from Emory University and her law degree from St. John's University School of Law.

Rice counsels public and private clients on a variety of finance transactions. Based in Reinhart's Milwaukee office, Rice is a graduate of the University of Washington and of Columbia Law School. She previously worked in the New York office of Gibson Dunn.
