Reinhart Attorney Brittany Lopez Naleid Featured in MMAC Return to Office Panelist Discussion

POSTED:

May 12, 2021

Reinhart attorney Brittany Lopez Naleid was a recent panelist for the Metropolitan Milwaukee Association of Commerce's discussion of return to office considerations for Milwaukee-area employers. The panel explored challenges and opportunities that may come with in-office and hybrid work configurations.

Brittany is a shareholder in Reinhart's Labor and Employment and Litigation practices where she assists clients in prosecuting and defending legal claims in administrative proceedings, state and federal court and through arbitration. She works with employers on a variety of claims, including employment discrimination and retaliation, occupational safety, wrongful termination, harassment cases and shareholder disputes.
