Reinhart Attorney Harvey L. Temkin Accepted into American College of Mortgage Attorneys

MADISON – Harvey L. Temkin, a Shareholder in Reinhart Boerner Van Deuren's Madison office, was recently made a fellow of the American College of Mortgage Attorneys (ACMA).

Harvey's substantial experience in real estate law along with his publications, presentations, bar association activities, teaching, and participation in the legislative process led to his nomination and acceptance in ACMA.

Concentrating his practice on real estate and business law, Harvey is also an active and longstanding member of the American College of Real Estate Lawyers (ACREL) and heads that organization's Title Insurance Coverage Subcommittee.

By being a member of ACMA and ACREL -- both selective organizations -- Harvey's real estate investor, developer, lender and other business clients can know that he commands knowledge of the most current legal and legislative developments and offers advice as an attorney that is recognized for his outstanding legal ability, experience and high standards of professional and ethical conduct in the practice of real estate law.

Further, Harvey is known for his creative problem-solving skills and his ability to understand and help clients work through challenges and achieve their big-picture objectives. His specialized knowledge and experience, coupled with his relationship with business and government leaders throughout Wisconsin, have enabled him to find innovative ways to help clients solve problems.
