John H. Zawadsky was the chair of Reinhart's Labor and Employment Practice in our Madison office where he also led the firm's Construction Industry group. For more than three decades, Zawadsky provided exceptional legal representation to a broad range of corporate clients involved in labor crises matters. His extensive experience and extraordinary knowledge of Labor and Employment matters earned him a well-deserved reputation as one of the most experienced traditional labor attorneys practicing in the nation.

Well-regarded by clients and peers alike, Zawadsky was awarded Martindale-Hubble's highest peer review rating for legal ability and ethical standards. In addition to being a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin, he was an editor of the Wisconsin Law Review and served on several community organizations' boards of directors.

"Words cannot express the sadness we feel at John's passing," said Reinhart CEO Jerome Janzer. "His dedication to our firm and commitment to his clients earned John the respect of all those who knew him. He was a tremendous attorney, partner and friend, and we will miss him dearly."
