Reinhart Hosts Annual Consumer Finance Symposium

CHICAGO – Reinhart Boerner Van Deuren s.c. (Reinhart) hosted its annual Consumer Finance Symposium (May 17-18) at the Hyatt Regency O'Hare in Chicago, drawing attendees from across the country. Reinhart attorneys were joined by presenters from RSM US LLP, FTI Consulting, KeyBanc Capital Markets, BMO Harris Bank, First Horizon Bank and Stephens Inc., speaking on topics including cybersecurity and data privacy, emerging fintech market trends, funding for growing finance companies and more. The annual symposium has grown to be the premier professional development gathering in the consumer finance space for those seeking to network with industry peers while accessing the latest information on emerging trends and critical developments.

Reinhart's dedicated Consumer Finance Team offers solutions for any stage of business. Consumer Finance law can be a complex maze of federal and state regulatory and compliance requirements, and our attorneys have the experience needed to help manage compliance obligations. We work with clients to successfully implement their financial and business strategies from growth capital to sale (exit) or recapitalization, navigate complex financing alternatives and execute growth plans. We also assist finance companies and lenders with licensing and certification, development of sound credit policies and procedures, compliance with consumer laws, due diligence, contractual agreements and accounts receivable management, and we provide due diligence support to acquisition groups and lenders who fund finance companies.
