The MJC, a vital community resource, operates solely through the generosity of local lawyers and through individual and corporate donations. Reinhart's multiyear commitment strongly reinforces the MJC's ability to provide essential legal self-help resources, one-to-one guidance and ongoing court-based assistance for many years to come.

"We are pleased to commit this support to help ensure the Milwaukee Justice Center's ability to serve those most in need," said Reinhart CEO Al Orr. "Our pledge recognizes the critical role the MJC plays in our community, and it honors the many Reinhart attorneys who have volunteered there over the years."

The MJC is a collaborative project between the Milwaukee Bar Association, Milwaukee County and Marquette University Law School. In 2022, 350+ volunteers dedicated more than 9,000 hours of pro bono service, totaling more than $1.35 million in free legal services provided to the community.
