Reinhart Names Four New Shareholders

MILWAUKEE – Jerome M. Janzer, CEO of Reinhart Boerner Van Deuren s.c., announced that attorneys, Bryant E. Ferguson, Brittany Lopez Naleid, Joshua D. Taggatz and John K. Tokarz have been named firm shareholders.

"We are fortunate to have such a dedicated and talented group of attorneys become Reinhart shareholders," said Janzer. John, Bryant, Brittany and Josh have each demonstrated exceptional talent in their areas of practice, proven ability to deliver insightful legal counsel, and a steadfast commitment to serving clients. We congratulate them on their accomplishments and look forward to their continued contributions to our clients and the firm."

Reinhart's new shareholders and their areas of focus are listed below:

Bryant E. Ferguson is a shareholder in Reinhart's Employee Benefits Practice where he focuses on advising large institutional investors in connection with their alternative investments. Ferguson advises a wide variety of institutional investors including government pension plans and overseas investors. As part of his representation of large institutional investors, he reviews partnership agreements, private placement memoranda and other offering and disclosure documents as well as negotiates investment terms in connection with these investments. Ferguson has experience with separate accounts and single-investor funds arrangements in a broad spectrum of asset classes. In addition, he represents buyers and sellers of private fund interests in the secondary market.

Ferguson earned his J.D., magna cum laude, from Marquette University Law School.

Brittany Lopez Naleid is a shareholder in Reinhart's Labor and Employment Practice where she has developed a practice focused on defending employers involved with employment discrimination, wrongful termination, harassment cases and shareholder disputes. Naleid has experience reviewing employment-related documents including employee handbooks, workplace policies and employment agreements, as well as employment-related immigration matters and non-emigrant visa petitions. In addition, she frequently represents low-income clients as part of Reinhart's pro bono program.

Naleid earned her J.D., cum laude, from the University of Wisconsin Law School.
