

Reinhart Shareholder Deborah Tomczyk Inducted into Milwaukee Business Journal's 40 Under 40 Hall of Fame

MILWAUKEE – Reinhart Boerner Van Deuren s.c. (Reinhart) is pleased to announce that Shareholder Deborah C. Tomczyk is among a group of four Milwaukee-area business executives who will be inducted into the Milwaukee Business Journal's 40 Under 40 Hall of Fame. (see TMJ4 News coverage).

Tomczyk has played a key part in numerous high-profile and locally significant projects, including representing a government body in developing the largest tax incremental financing district in Wisconsin's history; representing big box retailers in obtaining entitlements for hundreds of new and expanded stores; representing the owner redeveloping Wisconsin's largest regional shopping mall; representing the developer of a severely contaminated brownfield site in partnership with the local municipality; representing owners and developers of dozens of corporate headquarters; representing the owner of a community-building mixed use town center, including living, working and entertainment components as well as a public market; and representing the developers of more than a dozen business and industrial parks.

When asked by the Business Journal of Milwaukee about her work, Tomczyk commented that she is "fortunate to work with creative people on all sides of a transaction, implementing projects that positively change the complexion of our community, often, in high-profile ways."

She was first honored as a 40 Under 40 winner in 2005. The Business Journal of Milwaukee has been honoring Milwaukee's up-and-coming young professionals with its 40 Under 40 awards for 29 years.

Tomczyk and the three other Hall of Fame nominees will be honored with the 2022 class in a special section in the Journal March 25, and at a March 28 awards event at the Miller High Life Theatre in downtown Milwaukee.
