Reinhart Welcomes Banking and Finance Shareholder Robert Heinrich

MILWAUKEE – Reinhart Boerner Van Deuren s.c. (Reinhart) welcomes shareholder Robert Heinrich to the firm's Banking and Finance Practice. Prior to joining Reinhart, Heinrich was a partner with an international law firm.

Heinrich regularly advises banks and other lenders, and public and private borrowers and issuers, in structuring, documenting and administering a wide range of complex finance transactions. His experience includes secured and unsecured, senior and subordinated, investment grade and below investment grade, revolving and term, syndicated, participated and bilateral, and domestic, international and multicurrency credit facilities and indentures. Heinrich also handles asset securitization transactions and equipment lease financings.

"We are excited to add Bob's insight and experience to our practice," states Reinhart Banking and Finance Chair, David B. Schulz. "Bob is an excellent complement to our talented team. His finesse in handling complex and sophisticated banking and finance matters will allow us to continue and strengthen our record of superior service."

Heinrich also has extensive experience negotiating and delivering true sale opinions and non-consolidation opinions in structured finance transactions and other financial asset sale transactions in the secondary market. In addition, Heinrich counsels end-user clients on Dodd-Frank regulatory compliance matters concerning swaps and derivatives and has negotiated a variety of swaps and derivatives.
