

Reinhart Welcomes Two Attorneys

Milwaukee – Reinhart Boerner Van Deuren s.c. (Reinhart) welcomes two attorneys, further strengthening the firm’s Telecommunications and Energy and Real Estate practices.

Delanie Breuer joins Reinhart’s Telecommunications and Energy Law Practice as a shareholder in the firm’s Madison office where she represents energy and other utility companies on a number of regulatory, commercial and litigation matters. Breuer comes to Reinhart after serving as vice president of energy, environmental and regulatory relations for the Wisconsin Paper Council and as Chief of Staff for the Wisconsin Department of Justice.

Katherine Bills joins Reinhart as a real estate attorney working out of the firm’s Milwaukee and Chicago offices where she focuses on auto dealership law and commercial real estate. Bills previously served as in-house counsel for Lift Brands, Inc. (previously known as Snap Fitness, Inc.), and practiced real estate and business law in Illinois, where she represented motor vehicle dealerships. Her regional practice experience allows her to serve clients effectively across state lines.

“I am very pleased to welcome Delanie and Katie to Reinhart,” said CEO Jerry Janzer. “Delanie’s public and private sector experience in government regulation and Katie’s industry-specific real estate knowledge will be of tremendous benefit to our clients in these respective areas.”
