

Reinhart Welcomes Two New Shareholders

MILWAUKEE – Jerome M. Janzer, CEO and Chairman of Reinhart Boerner Van Deuren s.c. announced today the addition of two new shareholders to the law firm: Brian G. Carroll and John M. Murphy.

"Brian and John both come to Reinhart with valuable experience and a proven track record in their respective fields," said Jerome M. Janzer, Reinhart's CEO and Chairman. "Brian is one of the premier attorneys in Waukesha County in the business law and health care areas and John has a national practice in the real estate transaction area."

Carroll, a shareholder in the Business Law and Health Care Practices, comes to Reinhart after more than 25 years of practicing law in Waukesha County. He has experience in business law matters and business succession planning and has served as general corporate counsel to several corporations and health care organizations.

Carroll is the former president of the Waukesha County Bar Association and currently serves on the Board of Directors of ISB Community Bank, the Waukesha County Action Network, the Waukesha County Community Foundation and the Waukesha Memorial Hospital Foundation. He received both his undergraduate and law degrees from Marquette University.

Murphy, a shareholder in the Real Estate Practice, joins Reinhart from Sidley Austin LLP in Chicago. He brings with him extensive transactional experience in leasing, acquisitions, dispositions and real estate finance. Murphy's work includes negotiating and drafting complex leasing and other real estate transactional documentation. His clients include lenders, borrowers, developers, buyers, sellers, tenants, landlords and joint ventures.

Murphy received his law degree from the University of Chicago, his MA and PhD from the University of Wisconsin and a BA from the University of Illinois.

Janzer continues, "The addition of these two highly qualified shareholders, as well as our other recent shareholder additions, clearly indicates the strength of our firm and our ability to bring in experienced attorneys who can add value to the already outstanding services we are providing our clients."
