Reinhart and Its Attorneys Recognized by Benchmark Litigation 2013

MILWAUKEE – Reinhart Boerner Van Deuren s.c. (Reinhart) attorneys Mark A. Cameli, Scott W. Hansen and David G. Peterson are recognized as Benchmark Litigation 2013 local litigation stars for Wisconsin. Additionally, Reinhart is recognized as a Benchmark Litigation recommended law firm.

Cameli is a member of the firm's Board of Directors and a shareholder in the Litigation Practice, where he co-chairs the White Collar Litigation and Corporate Compliance team. He represents business clients from a broad range of industries in complex commercial litigation. He also represents businesses and individuals identified as victims, targets or witnesses in federal and state investigations for noncompliance and fraud, including securities and government program fraud.

Hansen is a shareholder and former chair of Reinhart's Litigation Practice. His work generally involves complex disputes between businesses or between business and governments in which a client's serious interests or ability to survive may be at risk.

Peterson is a shareholder in the firm's Litigation Practice. He focuses his practice primarily on disputes involving complex commercial litigation and product liability. Peterson also represents clients in environmental contamination cases and corporate governance disputes. In addition to his significant trial experience, he has extensive experience in mediation and arbitration.

Benchmark Litigation identifies the leading U.S. trial attorneys and firms at the local and national levels. Focused exclusively on the U.S. litigation market, the publication's rankings and editorials are the result of extensive interviews with private practice lawyers and in-house counsel. The guide's local litigation stars reflect lawyers who are recommended consistently as reputable and effective litigators by clients and peers. Benchmark's independent research was conducted between January and June 2012.
