Members of Marquette's Black, Hispanic and Asian Law Student Associations—in addition to other multicultural law students—are invited to the event, which will take place from 5:00 to 6:30 p.m. on Thursday, October 1 at Reinhart's Milwaukee headquarters, 1000 North Water Street.

The event will offer students the unique opportunity to network with practicing attorneys and build mentor relationships that will be invaluable throughout the course of their academic careers and beyond.

"We are pleased to be able to connect with aspiring attorneys at a pivotal time in their education," said Mark A. Cameli, a shareholder in the firm's Litigation Practice and chair of its Diversity Committee. "We understand the critical role that networking plays in the development of an attorney's career, and we're excited to facilitate those relationships for the next generation of talented lawyers."

Reinhart is proud to continue its support of multicultural law student groups at Marquette and other high-profile universities around the country.

Those interested in attending may RSVP by emailing marquetteblsa@gmail.com.
