Reinhart's Amy Ruhl, Jennifer Stenman Recognized in Legal 500's Denver Elite

DENVER – Reinhart Boerner Van Deuren s.c. (Reinhart) is pleased to announce that shareholders Amy Ruhl and Jennifer Stenman have been named to Legal 500's Denver Elite for real estate law. Legal 500 selects attorneys for elite status by conducting interviews with top practitioners, gaining peer feedback and reviewing key matters.

Denver Elite is one of several regional distinctions honoring the top attorneys from Legal 500, an international legal directory that has been analyzing the capabilities of law firms and attorneys internationally for more than 30 years.

Ruhl is the co-managing shareholder of Reinhart's Denver office and a member of the firm's Real Estate Practice, where she focuses on efficiently completing complex commercial real estate projects for her clients. She advises on every aspect of the development process of real property, including land acquisition, negotiation with governmental entities regarding infrastructure documentation, construction and permanent financing, and the leasing and disposition of assets. Amy's nationwide practice is primarily focused on industrial developments, mixed-use projects, multifamily projects, condominium formation and affordable housing projects.

Stenman is the co-managing shareholder of Reinhart's Denver office and a member of the firm's Real Estate Practice, where she counsels commercial property owners and developers in sales, acquisitions and leasing transactions. She leverages her extensive experience with commercial leasing to assist landlords of office, industrial and retail assets in negotiating and drafting lease documents, including build to suit leases, and handling landlord/tenant matters. Jennifer's practice is nationwide and concentrates predominately on large industrial projects such as warehouses, distribution centers and manufacturing facilities.
