

Reinhart's Growth Continues: Patent Attorneys James G. Morrow and Robert A. Lawler Join Firm

MILWAUKEE – Jerome M. Janzer, Chief Executive Officer and Chairman of Reinhart Boerner Van Deuren s.c. (Reinhart) announced today that James G. Morrow and Robert A. Lawler, highly regarded for their work in Intellectual Property (IP), have joined the firm. Morrow is based in the firm's Milwaukee office and Lawler in Madison.

"Jim Morrow's reputation and experience will be a tremendous asset as we continue to grow our IP practice. Jim's breadth of experience in IP litigation is a great complement to our existing practices in Wisconsin and in Illinois and enhances the benefits we provide to our clients. We are also pleased that Robert Lawler, another experienced IP attorney, is joining our IP practice and will be based in our Madison office, which we also continue to expand," Janzer said.

Morrow, an attorney with nearly 25 years of experience, joins Reinhart's Intellectual Property Practice. His practice includes IP infringement risk assessment and evaluation, IP litigation, IP agreement negotiation and intellectual capital protection counseling. Morrow received his undergraduate and law degrees from the University of Wisconsin. His clients include local, national and international companies of all sizes.

Lawler has a background in biotechnology, software and medical devices. Additionally, he has experience in geology and hydrogeology, providing a unique perspective and enabling him to counsel a broad range of clients in the scientific and technical industries. Lawler received his law degree from the University of Iowa College of Law and his B.S. from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

"Our IP Practice has seen significant growth over the past several years and we are pleased to have these two talented and experienced patent attorneys to assist our clients. Their scientific backgrounds, history of success in the representation of their clients and dedication to exceptional client service make them a great addition to our IP team," Janzer said.
