Samantha Siehr is a paralegal in Reinhart's Trusts and Estates Practice, assisting client trustees with the administration of irrevocable trusts, coordinating payments and ensuring that beneficiary needs are met.

Working primarily with business owners on open trusts, Sam takes the time to understand each client's unique goals, collaborating with attorneys to protect the legacy of trustees and maintain open communication between all parties. Attorneys and clients appreciate her personable demeanor and willingness to go the extra mile, and Sam appreciates the opportunity to help beneficiaries of all types, from high-net-worth individuals to underserved populations. Supporting others in the realization of their planning goals gives her professional satisfaction and a great sense of accomplishment.

Outside of work, she is a tireless advocate for the welfare of animals, volunteering her time and resources to foster stray cats and find them loving homes.
