

Shareholder Reeves featured in Wisconsin Law Journal

Reinhart Shareholder Tiffany Reeves is featured in the Wisconsin Law Journal where she discusses her work in the firm's Employee Benefits and Institutional Investor Services practices.

In the article "Having Their Backs: Reeves works to protect fund assets" Tiffany shares what she finds most interesting about her work, why she became a lawyer, and who she considers to be her hero in the legal field.

Reeves practice focuses primarily on representing and advising institutional investor clients in domestic and international private investments in transactions on an individual or commingled basis. Tiffany also advises public pension fund clients on fiduciary, governance, legislative and general fund administration matters.
