Stacy K. Heder is a paralegal in Reinhart's Employee Benefits Practice, specializing in ERISA Subrogation cases and Taft-Hartley Multiemployer Plans.

Noted for her high degree of efficiency, whether preparing materials for meetings, drafting amendments or corresponding with multiple entities, Stacy works methodically to ensure accuracy, meeting client needs well before deadlines. Her experience allows her to quickly find the best possible solution while ensuring no detail is missed.

Stacy's B.A. in political science provides her with a strong research background, and her previous work as a paralegal in Social Security disability law equips her to respond to clients' specialized needs. She finds satisfaction in working with health funds to benefit their members and values the relationships she builds with clients and contacts.

Outside work, she enjoys hiking, camping and attending live music events.
