Stephanie Larson is an Information Research Specialist in the firm's fully automated and professionally staffed Information Resource Center (IRC), where she provides research assistance to attorneys in the firm to bolster their arguments and increase research proficiency, with the goal of providing the attorneys with the information and tools needed to best service clients. Steph provides a full spectrum of research and investigative services, from answering general reference questions and conducting detailed research projects to locating difficult-to-find or obscure information. Her in-depth knowledge of print and electronic resources allows her to provide Reinhart attorneys with comprehensive information relating to a wide range of relevant subject matters.

Steph can navigate diverse databases and employ specialized search strategies to provide attorneys and clients with information to help make informed, strategic decisions. Her ability to grasp requests quickly allows her to deliver needed information in a timely manner. Additionally, she works closely with attorneys to provide clients with reliable guidance.

In her free time, she enjoys visiting the theatre, art museums and farmer's markets.
