The Daily Reporter Publishes Rick Donner's Wisconsin TIF Article

Shareholder Rick Donner's article, "What's new in Wisconsin TIF: Key changes under Acts 173 and 235" was featured online and in print in The Daily Reporter, a Wisconsin news publication covering real estate, development and construction.

In the article, Donner reviews changes to Wisconsin's tax incremental financing (TIF) laws under Acts 173 and 235 and how they may impact future development projects. He urges developers, municipalities and other stakeholders to evaluate how these changes could affect their current and upcoming development plans.

Donner is a member of the firm's Real Estate Practice where he counsels clients on governmental relations, zoning, land use, property tax, eminent domain, financing, sales and acquisitions and other aspects of real estate development. He represents local, regional and national developers, as well as individuals, owners, lenders, borrowers, municipalities and community development associations.
