

Trade Mission Accomplished: Reinhart Helps Forge Lasting Bonds in Prague

Reinhart's Trade Mission to Prague aimed to expand or create relationships for Wisconsin companies interested in doing business in the Czech Republic, which continues to offer opportunities. In addition to forging stronger economic ties between Milwaukee and Eastern Europe, the mission also helped educate government officials on the importance of foreign trade. Some participants included Milwaukee Mayor Tom Barrett; Deputy Mayor of Prague in charge of International Affairs, Marketa Reedova; Milwaukee County Executive Scott Walker; US Ambassador to the Czech Republic Richard W. Graber; and Reinhart Boerner Van Deuren CEO Jerry Janzer.
