U.S. Immigration Issues for Foreign Businesses

Reinhart hosted a webinar series – handout and recording – U.S. Legal Issues for Foreign Businesses in the United States, which was designed to introduce foreign businesses and their legal counsel to the legal issues that are most likely to be important to their U.S. operations. Our attorneys, who span a wide range of legal disciplines, provided a practical approach to these legal issues to help foreign businesses succeed in the United States. The series was hosted by Robert Misey, Chair of Reinhart's International Practice.

The second topic in the series is U.S. Immigration Issues for Foreign Businesses, presented by Benjamin T. Kurten. Ben will provided an overview of the more common immigration-related issues that are encountered when either: transferring employees from non-U.S. companies to assignments within the United States or when trying to hire non-U.S. natives directly within the United States; establishing new U.S. offices or enterprises within the United States; and complying with the complex employment authorization compliance rules.
