

What Revised Visitation and Salon Guidance Will Most Likely Entail

While long-term care facilities await updated guidance on how to properly administer visitations, Bob Lightfoot advises the use of outdoor spaces if available, following social distancing guidelines, and requiring the use of masks.

Many facilities offer salon services as a benefit of residence, and, until recently, beauty professionals would often visit multiple locations. With the advent of COVID-19, however, Lightfoot believes vendors will be restricted to only one facility to help slow the spread of the coronavirus.
