

Wisconsin Law Journal Names John Van Lieshout to Environmental Law Powerlist

MILWAUKEE – Reinhart Boerner Van Deuren s.c. (Reinhart) is pleased announces that Shareholder John Van Lieshout has been named to the Wisconsin Law Journal's Environmental Law Powerlist. Van Lieshout was selected for inclusion for his work in the environmental law space, and his dedication to helping clients through matters like brownfields financing, remediation and due diligence for mergers and acquisitions and more.

The Wisconsin Law Journal's Powerlist series highlights leading practitioners whose work has made a significant impact on their practice area and the legal community. This honor, reserved for Wisconsin's most influential legal professionals, reflects Van Lieshout's excellence in his field, consistently working as a trusted adviser on behalf of his clients.

Van Lieshout is a shareholder in the firm's Environmental/Real Estate and Litigation practices, where his years of experience, unique insights and practical solutions make him a valuable legal partner to his clients. He provides knowledgeable, effective counsel on a wide variety of environmental matters including brownfields financing, remediation, and merger/acquisition due diligence as well as litigation including Superfund/CERCLA cleanup cases and defense of environmental enforcement/forfeiture cases. He regularly represents municipalities and government agencies with eminent domain issues and litigates complex creditor/debtor matters including mortgage foreclosures and actions against guarantors. Van Lieshout strives to make this complex area of law accessible and less intimidating to clients, providing perspective and helping them work toward successful resolutions.
