

Wisconsin Owners Forum

Regardless of what life cycle stage your company is in, being prepared for inevitable transitions makes good business sense. In fall 2018, the Exit Planning Institute (EPI) conducted a survey of 200 Wisconsin-owned businesses to determine the “state of owner readiness” regarding succession plans. To equip business owners with the information needed to both create additional value and exit their business in the best way possible, Reinhart partnered with EPI to present the 2018 Wisconsin Owners Forum on November 7, 2018. This half-day, interactive educational event for business owners and their key partners featured award-winning industry leader Christopher Snider, as well as Reinhart attorneys and other local experts in the fields of business strategy, exit planning, succession planning and marketplace trends. Additionally, results of the 2018 Wisconsin State of Owner Readiness Survey were shared to provide insights on the exit strategy mindset of business owners in Wisconsin.
